There are several recommended apps on the jigsaw website and through google search. I recommend you try them yourselves first. The Calm & Headspace Apps are good for guided meditation and mindfulness which will help reduce anxiety.

There are also so many podcasts and Ted talks on the internet , just google the topics you are researching , e.g. stress, anxiety , being a teenager, body image etc.

Please feel free to email your child's year leader in relation to any concerns that you may have in relation to your teenagers mental health.

I really hope these resources will help you over the coming years.
